

MATHEMATICS (MA)

MA 4971 Applied Mathematics (3 credit hours)

An introduction to basic mathematical skills as applied to life and work. This course will give instruction on mathematical concepts and will aid the student in the comprehension and the performance of mathematical problems and the application of basic mathematics.