

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friend,

Let me take a moment to thank you for your interest in Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary. Our school is committed to training pastors, church staff leaders, and missionaries to serve the Lord Jesus Christ. Our school emphasizes the inerrant Bible, personal evangelism, and missions as a way of life and ministry. I hope that as you seek to learn more information about Mid-America, God will guide you in what He is doing at this wonderful place. With our God-called faculty, state-of-the-art facilities, and incredible staff, we are experiencing an unusual day of God's great blessings on Mid-America.

Discover the passion of the Mid-America family and friends. Our world-class faculty members are active Southern Baptists, committed to the local church, and they are personal soul-winners.

At Mid-America, we are not just in the business of providing academic training, we are in the ministry of changing lives to make an eternity's worth of difference. Come join us and learn to be more like the Lord Jesus, ready to minister effectively in a lost and dying world.

In Christ,

Michael R. Spradlin, PhD
President
